

Little People of America
Trifecta 2015

Little People and the ADA
(Americans with Disabilities Act)

Friday 3-4 pm
Arizona Ballroom F

This session is dedicated to Title I of the ADA in employment for persons with disabilities. We will go over what is a reasonable accommodation, how to request one, and go over the interactive process. We will go over how to file a complaint and what to expect in terms of timelines. We will also discuss some employment cases related to little people and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Arizona Office of Civil Rights.

Facilitator –

Edward L. Myers III has practiced disability law for 25 years. After working as a law clerk for the Montana Supreme Court he worked for the Montana Advocacy Program now known as Disability Rights Montana as a Mental Health and Assistive Technology Attorney, and for the Arizona Center for Disability Law in similar positions. He also worked as a Policy and Funding Specialist for the Arizona Technology Access Program and currently an adjunct Professor for Northern Arizona University teaching Disability Law in Education and Advanced Disability Law. He recently retired after eight years as the Deputy Executive Director for the Arizona Center for Disability Law. He has also been published in several journals and the Montana Law Review on disability and technology issues.
