PREPARING FOR COLLEGE

Friday 2:00-3:00 pm
Arizona Ballroom D

In this workshop, we'll go over preparing academically, mentally, socially, and cognitively for college/university. The workshop will be divided into two halves with the first half being dedicated to presentation and the second half will be an open discussion where any question can be fielded and answered. During the presentation, topics will include:

- challenges and advantages as a LP in a collegiate setting
- tips and advice
- what to and not say on college applications
- little known resources
- things to be aware of that can save a student (esp. a little person) in the long run

Facilitators –

Rev. Benjamin Woika is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University, class of '11. He has held several government and parks and recreation positions. He has experience working at several career centers and has hired over 300 college students. Currently, he is programming full-time in Concord.

Lucy Woika is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, class of '12 majoring in Sociology. She participated in numerous groups on campus. She is now working as a Sales Rep in San Francisco for a fraud protection and revenue optimizing company.

Ben and Lucy were married in 2014!
